

FLAG STILL WAVES

100 YEARS SINCE KEY WROTE
"STAR SPANGLED BANNER."

TO PROVIDE MEMORIAL

Author's Granddaughter in Washington to Assist in Purchase of Old Homestead—Story of Poem.

By VAN CLEVE.

Washington, D. C., July 24.—A most interesting character is found in the person of Mrs. R. T. Norwood of Texarkana, Texas, who is visiting in this city now. Mrs. Norwood is the grand daughter of Francis Scott Key, author of "The Star Spangled Banner," and is here in part to deliver some poems from the pen of her grandfather to the Key Memorial association.

Mrs. Norwood bears every mark of extreme age. She does not volunteer any information on that subject, but is well up in the eighties, yet she is remarkably well preserved, spry as a cricket, hale and hearty, good humored, keen and bright intellectually and enjoys life better than most people of half her age. She has traveled extensively and always alone, because she says "no one ever seems to be going my way." She attended the Portland exposition a few years ago and now she is spending several weeks in Washington on the opposite side of the continent.

She is very methodical and precise in her habits. Every morning she spends a certain time visiting the various points of interest here, and in the afternoon she rests either in the senate or house galleries listening to the debates or in the company of some new found friend. She is an enthusiastic boomer for her home city, and takes as much pride and pleasure in distributing literature and urging people to go there as any real estate man. She is a large property owner and is an honorary member of the board of trade.

She has been an accomplished musician and her fingers still possess remarkable suppleness and deftness on the piano. She is an interesting conversationalist and her kindly face glows with interest and good humor when she talks. Many years ago she visited the home of her grandfather in Georgetown, and distinctly remembers his gentleness, charming personality and his great love for children. During her childhood he sent her many books at Christmas time, which she still has and prizes highly.

The story of "The Star Spangled Banner" has been much misunderstood and frequently misrepresented. In fact, there are different theories as to the minor circumstances, but the facts seem to be as follows: After the battle of Bladensburg, during the war of 1812, Dr. William Beanes, a prominent physician of that time and a close friend of Key, was entertaining a party of friends at his home at Marlboro, Md., when a straggling party of British marauders came up and intruded themselves upon his party. They were under the influence of wine and, elated by their success of the previous day, soon became so turbulent and violent that the doctor had them arrested and locked up.

One husky fellow escaped and reported to Admiral Cockburn that Dr. Beanes had attempted to poison his whole party. Cockburn, being somewhat vengeful over the arrest of his men, sent out a squad of marines, who took Dr. Beanes, half clad, astride a bareback mule, into the British lines. He was there confined in chains on the admiral's flagship "Surprise," and is said to have been condemned to be hung on the yardarm of the vessel.

Francis Scott Key was then a United States district attorney, and, hearing of the plight of his friend, set out to secure his release. Accompanied by another friend they sought the admiral. They had a hard siege, but Key's engaging personality and earnestness finally won for him to the extent that they were allowed to leave the British ship and were placed on board the American ship "Minden" under a British guard. The British expected to take Fort Mifflin, and these men were so placed that they would be in full view of the anticipated American defeat. The fort was bombarded and orders were sent to the little band in charge to surrender but they refused and announced their intention to hold the fort or die in the attempt. They held it, and the expected humiliation did not materialize.

It was during this time that Key took an old letter he had in his pocket and upon the back of it wrote the song that made his name immortal. The song was first printed in the Baltimore American.

The old Key mansion, built in 1802, is still one of the old landmarks of Georgetown, just a few doors from the old home of Owen Meredith, where "Lucille" was written and not far from a number of other old homes that sheltered other famous characters in American history. The Key mansion is of a familiar type of early architecture. It is a brick structure of two full stories and a third story under a high roof that slants from front and back to the center, with a wide chimney at either end. A frayed old flag floats with the breezes from the front and an interesting lady occupies a desk within, where she receives subscriptions to the Key Memorial association. The building is now owned by a real estate firm and the association has an option on it. They hope to raise enough from these memberships and the sale of a history of the author's life to buy the place and preserve it.

Among her relics Mrs. Norwood has the will of her great-grandfather, Philip Key, in which he wills away his "blade" (sword) and enjoins careful preservation of a certain brick chimney to which he was attached. Some years ago Mrs. Norwood met and was introduced to a niece of Admiral Cockburn, in Buffalo, N. Y., whom she greeted with this assurance, "I will forgive past indignities if they are never repeated." She was promptly assured that they would not be so far as her new acquaintance could control the situation.

NO MORE CRYSTAL

THEATER GIVES WAY TO DEMAND
OF SCHOOL FOR MORE ROOM.

BUSINESS COLLEGE GROWS

Assembly Hall and Offices to Take the Place of Room Now Used by the Theater.

The Maryville Business college has taken over the space occupied by the Crystal theater and will convert the same building into school quarters. The Crystal will soon be a thing of the past, and the changes to be made will give the college the best arrangement of any commercial school in the state. The steady growth of the college during the past five years warrants the change, and it is believed that the Business college is destined to a much greater degree of usefulness.

Two handsome and specially arranged offices are to be put in down stairs in the front. The one on the south will be occupied by the president of the college and by the dean of the auctioneering department. The other, on the north, will be occupied by Holt, Cook & Co., a new real estate, bond and brokerage concern, full announcement of which will be made later.

An assembly hall or auditorium will take the place of the theater, with a seating capacity of about 400. Stage, scenery, etc., will be taken out. Chapel or assembly exercises will be held once a week, and various lectures will be given during the year. The School of Auctioneering will be conducted in the assembly room.

A series of college entertainments has already been contracted for with the Redpath Lyceum bureau of Chicago. They are largely musical in nature, but some solid lectures will be given, which will be of great educational value to the students. These entertainments will be for the public, but will appeal especially to college students and are expected to materially build up the school. College clubs, friendship socials and other will be given regularly in the assembly room.

The college wants a band and an orchestra, and an arrangement is trying to be made which will get the services of an excellent leader. Special inducements are offered to young people who can play in a band or orchestra, and anyone interested should write the president of the school without delay.

The Western School company disposed of the school at Creston several weeks ago, in order that more attention could be given this school. Every energy will be brought to work on the local school, and it is possible that other departments will be added in the near future. The new catalogue has just been issued from The Democrat-Forum office, and the new term will begin September 5.

Showered the Wrong Cot.

The spirit of mischief must have prevailed among the young men as well as the young ladies of Maryville this week. A crowd of fellows have thought it great sport to play pranks on the young men who have been sleeping in tents during the summer weeks. A few evenings ago a crowd of pleasure seekers bided the hour of retiring, and when the figured that the correct time was at hand cautiously approached the tent and prepared to give the young man a shower bath. Splash went the water and they scampered away, leaving the victim to his fate, but the intruders had invaded the wrong tent, and instead of the victim for whom they had made such preparations they had baptized the cot on which his mother slept. She failed to see the fun until next morning, when she was thoroughly dry and warm, when she laughed with the rest of them.

Bonnie Johnson Married.

Word has been received in Maryville of the marriage on Saturday evening July 22d, of Miss Bonnie Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Johnson of Maryville, to J. Louis Crum of Danville, Ky. The wedding took place at 8 o'clock p. m., at Hot Springs, Ark. Mr. and Mrs. Crum have gone to housekeeping in Hot Springs, where they will live during the winter, their address being 208 Garden street. Mrs. Crum has been in Hot Springs since May 1st, where she went with her mother, who was a sufferer from rheumatism. Mrs. Johnson will remain there for a month or more, as the climate has been beneficial and she is seeking a permanent cure.

The bride was a teacher in this county for a few years, having taught here in Elmo and Barnard, and is well known. Mr. Crum visited her here and is remembered by her friends in this city.

SCARED THE HORSE

AUTO DRIVEN BY DICK WOODS
CAUSE OF ACCIDENT.

GIRL HAD LEG BROKEN

As a Result Woods Was Arrested On
Warrant Sworn Out by George Barber.

Richard, or "Dick," Woods, favorably known in the city, was arrested Thursday by Sheriff Tilson on a charge of injuring the life of Grace Barber by negligence in operating an automobile. The information was sworn out by George Barber, father of the 16-year-old girl, who sustained a broken leg and other injuries by the carelessness of Woods in driving the machine, states the information.

The accident happened last Friday. Woods, accompanied by Ben Wright and Henry Willhoite, went to Parnell on that day in O. K. Stender's machine, Woods driving the car. On nearing Parnell, about two and a half miles from that town, Grace Barber was riding horseback, and on the approach of the machine, which it is said was going at a good speed, the horse became frightened and commenced to run away, but the driver of the machine, instead of slowing down, increased the speed, causing the horse to throw the girl, she sustaining a number of injuries and a broken leg. It is said that the party went on into Parnell and did not stop to help the girl.

Bail was furnished by Woods for $800, with J. A. Ford and G. B. Baker as sureties. The case will probably come up at the special term of court to be held in September.

THEY SHOULD GO TO THE PROPER AUTHORITIES

It is said that there has been many complaints recently on the part of many people on the open violation of the speed laws of the city by automobile drivers. As one official said Thursday morning to a representative of this paper: "These people should tell the proper authorities in regard to the autoists violating the speed ordinance and going around the city without any lights on their machines. How are we going to find out if these people who see them violating the law don't tell us? If they go to the proper authorities, and if there is any violation of the city ordinances we will see that they are dealt with."

All are cordially invited to attend the mystery social at the First M. E. church Friday night.

Mrs. E. C. Wolfers, Sr., Mrs. Chas. Donlin, Mrs. Ed Herbert and Mrs. H. C. Clutter of Hopkins were Maryville visitors Wednesday afternoon.

Fred Wolfers of Pickering drove the Wolfers car to Maryville Wednesday, accompanied by Galen Goodson of Hopkins and John Douglas.

RECIPROCITY BILL IS SIGNED

President Taft Affixes His Name
to Measure.

CABINET MEMBERS PRESENT.

Vice President Sherman and Speaker
Clark Signed It Shortly Before It
Was Sent to the White House—Penrose Gets the Gold Pen.

Washington, July 27.—Speaker Clark and Vice President Sherman signed the Canadian reciprocity bill. It was sent once forwarded to the president.

The bill reached the White House shortly after 1 p. m., but Mr. Taft did not sign it until 3:16 p. m. Secretary of State Knox and other officials were present.

Secretary of State Knox, Secretary of Commerce and Labor Nagel, Secretary to the President Hill and Representative Littleton of New York and several newspaper correspondents and a battery of photographers witnessed the signing. As he picked up the pen the president turned to Secretary Knox.

"Come over here, Brother Knox," he said. "You are responsible for this."
The secretary of state stood beside the president as he placed his name on the parchment.

"It is done," said Mr. Knox.
"It's done," echoed the president, as the two clasped hands across the desk.

To give the photographers a chance
the president went through the motion of signing the act a few seconds later.

"I didn't know there was so much interest in it as this," he said. "But—"
He was snapped wearing a broad smile.

The gold pen used by the president in signing the treaty was sent to Chairman Penrose of the senate finance committee, who led the fight for the bill in the senate.

UNUSUAL AUTO ACCIDENT

Man Under Car Is Killed When Another Machine Strikes It.

New York, July 27.—Charles Hirsh, a manufacturer of Brooklyn, was instantly killed and John Wotka, a chauffeur, was fatally injured in an unusual automobile accident on Pet-ham parkway. Hirsh had crawled beneath his car to make repairs when a second automobile crashed into it, wrecking both machines and crushing Hirsh so badly that he died a few minutes later.

The chauffeur of the second automobile, John Wotka, had been blinded by the glare of a third automobile and in swerving out struck the Hirsh machine. Wotka, as he lay in the ambulance, kept repeating, "My God!
That glare, that glare!"

The physicians say Wotka is not expected to live. Three other occupants of Wotka's car were slightly hurt, including John Giles of South Norwalk, Conn., the owner of the car.

ATTACKS CHICAGO TRIBUNE

Lorimer's Attorney Tries to "Show It
Up" During Cross-Examination.

Washington, July 27.—Clash after clash between witness and attorney occurred again at the senate Lorimer committee hearing during the cross-examination of James Keeley, general manager and editor of the Chicago Tribune, by Senator Lorimer's counsel.
The proceedings largely centered around the publication of the so called confession of State Representative
White of the Illinois legislature.

Just before the committee recessed
Mr. Haney asked if the Tribune engaged Alfred Austrian for its counsel in the White-Lorimer matter because
of any close relation of Austrian's firm to the state's attorney's office in Chicago, from which many indictments in the matter had emanated.

Mr. Keeley responded that Mr. Austrian was employed by the Tribune as its counsel long before the White confession or the Lorimer election ever came up.

Hundred Killed by Typhoon.

Tokyo, July 27.—More than a hundred persons are believed to have lost their lives in the typhoon which swept over Tokyo and Yokohama during the night. Forty bodies were recovered in the Suzuki district, including twenty-three occupants of a resort which was washed away before the tenants could escape. The property loss will be large. Many fishing vessels and small coastwise craft are missing.

retary Morrison of the American Federation of Labor, to the 2,000,000 members of labor unions. He suggests

Warren Relief Bill Passed by Senate.

Washington, July 27.—The senate

stead claimants in drought stricken districts of Wyoming, the Dakotas and Nebraska to leave their lands until their rights.

BANNER OF REVOLT RAISED

Tariff Reformers at Dinner Given to Earl of Halsburg.

CHEER POLICY OF RESISTANCE

Reference to Prime Minister Asquith Erings Out Shouts of Traitor by Those Seated About the Table—Earl of Selborne Presides.

London, July 27.—The banner of revolt against political party leaders was raised at a dinner given for the Earl of Halsburg, which the extremists among the Unionists intended should be a demonstration of their strength.
Several hundred Unionist peers, Unionist members of the house of commons and party workers cheered the policy of resistance.

The Earl of Selborne, who is credited with being a candidate for leader of the opposition in the house of lords, presided and conspicuous among the diners were the Duke of Bedford, the Duke of Northumberland, the Duke of Westminster, the Duke of Marlborough,
the Marquis of Salisbury, Viscount Milverton, Baron Amptill, Lord Hugh
Cecil, Austen Chamberlain, Frederick
E. Smith, M. P., for the Waltham division of Liverpool, and the Rt. Hon.
George Wyndham, who was chief secretary for Ireland, 1900-1905, with a seat in the cabinet in Mr. Balfour's ministry, 1902. The younger Unionists and tariff reformers composed the bulk of the company.

Asquith denounced as a traitor.
Lord Halsburg was given a great ovation. He said Lord Lansdowne had declared that if the bill passed, no institution would be safe, neither the crown nor the constitution; Irish union, the church, nor political liberties.

Austen Chamberlain made a stirring speech. When he had finished there were cries of "The future prime minister."

A reference to Premier Asquith was greeted with shouts of "Traitor!"
Mr. Wyndham, the Duke of Northumberland, the Marquis of Salisbury,
Lord Milner, Sir Edward Carson, Mr.
Smith and Lord Hugh Cecil spoke.

DIPLOMATS TALK IN LONDON

Situation in Morocco Is Rapidly Nearing Acute Stage.

London, July 27.—That Germany will get compensation in South Africa as a result of its descent on Agadir and in return for the free hand which France is seeking in Morocco is conceded here, but it is also clear that Great Britain is not going to permit the establishment of a German naval base on the west coast of Africa if it can prevent it.

The activity of the foreign office was again marked. The indications point to the near approach of a stage where the crisis either will become acutely virulent or begin to dissolve. The composition of the group of ministers actively handling the situation—Premier Asquith, Sir Edward Grey, secretary of foreign affairs, and Chancellor Lloyd-George, the latter representing the Radicals of the cabinet—shows that the British government is solid,
while the fact that Sir Francis Bertie,
the British ambassador to France, and Paul Cambon, the French ambassador
at London, have been called into conference proves the continued solidarity of the Anglo-French entente.

King Alfonso, too, appeared on the scene, having arrived at Portsmouth on the Spanish royal yacht Giraldi and immediately came to London, where he conferred with Sir Edward Grey.

A HARMLESS WAY TO DARKEN THE HAIR

A Little Sage and Sulphur
Makes Gray Hair Vanish—A
Remedy for All Hair Troubles

Who does not know the value of sage
and sulphur for keeping the hair dark, soft, glossy and in good condition? As a matter of fact, sulphur is a natural element of hair, and a deficiency of it in the hair is held by many scalp specialists to be connected with loss of color and vitality of the hair. Unquestionably, there is no better remedy for hair and scalp troubles, especially premature gray-ness, than sage and sulphur, if properly prepared. The Wyeth Chemical Company of New York put up an ideal remedy of this kind, called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, and authorize druggists to sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.

FLAG STILL WAVES

"STAR SPANGLED BANNER."

Author's Granddaughter in Washington to Assist in Purchase of Old Homestead—Story of Poem.

By VAN CLEVE.

Washington, D. C., July 24.—A most interesting character is found in the person of Mrs. R. T. Norwood of Texarkana, Texas, who is visiting in this city now. Mrs. Norwood is the granddaughter of Francis Scott Key, author of "The Star Spangled Banner," and is here in part to deliver some poems from the pen of her grandfather to the Key Memorial association.

Mrs. Norwood bears every mark of extreme age. She does not volunteer any information on that subject, but is well up in the eighties, yet she is remarkably well preserved, spry as a cricket, hale and hearty, good humored, keen and bright intellectually and enjoys life better than most people of half her age. She has traveled extensively and always alone, because she says "no one ever seems to be going my way." She attended the Portland exposition a few years ago and now she is spending several weeks doing in Washington on the opposite side of the continent.

She is very methodical and precise in her habits. Every morning she spends a certain time visiting the various points of interest here, and in the afternoon she rests either in the senate or house galleries listening to the debates or in the company of some new found friend. She is an enthusiastic boomer for her home city, and takes as much pride and pleasure in distributing literature and urging people to go there as any real estate man. She is a large property owner and is an honorary member of the board of trade.

She has been an accomplished musician and her fingers still possess remarkable suppleness and deftness on the piano. She is an interesting conversationalist and her kindly face glows with interest and good humor when she talks. Many years ago she visited the home of her grandfather in Georgetown, and distinctly remembers his gentleness, charming personality and his great love for children. During her childhood he sent her many books at Christmas time, which she still has and prizes highly.

The story of "The Star Spangled Banner" has been much misunderstood and frequently misrepresented. In fact, there are different theories as to the minor circumstances, but the facts seem to be as follows: After the battle of Bladensburg, during the war of 1812, Dr. William Beanes, a prominent physician of that time and a close friend of Key, was entertaining a party of friends at his home at Marlboro, Md., when a straggling party of British marauders came up and intruded themselves upon his party. They were under the influence of wine and, elated by their success of the previous day, soon became so turbulent and violent that the doctor had them arrested and locked up.

One husky fellow escaped and reported to Admiral Cockburn that Dr. Beanes had attempted to poison his whole party. Cockburn, being somewhat vengeful over the arrest of his men, sent out a squad of marines, who took Dr. Beanes, half clad, astride a bareback mule, into the British lines. He was there confined in chains on the admiral's flagship "Surprise," and is said to have been condemned to be hung on the yardarm of the vessel.

Francis Scott Key was then a United States district attorney, and, hearing of the plight of his friend, set out to secure his release. Accompanied by another friend they sought the admiral. They had a hard siege, but Key's engaging personality and earnestness finally won for him to the extent that they were allowed to leave the British ship and were placed on board the American ship "Minden" under a British guard. The British expected to take Fort Mifflin, and these men were so placed that they would be in full view of the anticipated American defeat. The fort was bombarded and orders were sent to the little band in charge to surrender but they refused and announced their intention to hold the fort or die in the attempt. They held it, and the expected humiliation did not materialize. It was during this time that Key took an old letter he had in his pocket and upon the back of it wrote the song that made his name immortal. The song was first printed in the Baltimore American.

The old Key mansion, built in 1802, is still one of the old landmarks of Georgetown, just a few doors from the old home of Owen Meredith, where "Lucile" was written and not far from a number of other old homes that sheltered other famous characters in American history. The Key mansion is of a familiar type of early architecture. It is a brick structure of two full stories and a third story under a high roof that slants from front and back to the center, with a wide chimney at either end. A frayed old flag floats with the breezes from the front and an interesting lady occupies a desk within, where she receives subscriptions to the Key Memorial association. The building is now owned by a real estate firm and the association has an option on it. They hope to raise enough from these memberships and the sale of a history of the author's life to buy the place and preserve it.

Among her relics Mrs. Norwood has the will of her great-grandfather, Philip Key, in which he wills away his "blade" (sword) and enjoins careful preservation of a certain brick chimney to which he was attached. Some years ago Mrs. Norwood met and was introduced to a niece of Admiral Cockburn, in Buffalo, N. Y., whom she greeted with this assurance: "I will forgive past indignities if they are never repeated." She was promptly assured that they would not be so far as her new acquaintance could control the situation.

THEATER GIVES WAY TO DEMAND
OF SCHOOL FOR MORE ROOM.

Assembly Hall and Offices to Take
the Place of Room Now Used
by the Theater.

The Maryville Business college has taken over the space occupied by the Crystal theater and will convert the same building into school quarters. The Crystal will soon be a thing of the past, and the changes to be made will give the college the best arrangement of any commercial school in the state. The steady growth of the college during the past five years warrants the change, and it is believed that the Business college is destined to a much greater degree of usefulness.

Two handsome and specially arranged offices are to be put in down stairs in the front. The one on the south will be occupied by the president of the college and by the dean of the auctioneering department. The other, on the north, will be occupied by Holt, Cook & Co., a new real estate, bond and brokerage concern, full announcement of which will be made later.

An assembly hall or auditorium will take the place of the theater, with a seating capacity of about 400. The stage, scenery, etc., will be taken out. Chapel or assembly exercises will be held once a week, and various lectures will be given during the year. The School of Auctioneering will be conducted in the assembly room.

A series of college entertainments has already been contracted for with the Redpath Lyceum bureau of Chicago. They are largely musical in nature, but some solid lectures will be given, which will be of great educational value to the students. These entertainments will be for the public, but will appeal especially to college students and are expected to materially build up the school. College glee clubs, friendship socials and other will be given regularly in the assembly room.

The college wants a band and an orchestra, and an arrangement is trying to be made which will get the services of an excellent leader. Special inducements are offered to young people who can play in a band or orchestra, and anyone interested should write the president of the school without delay.

The Western School company disposed of the school at Creston several weeks ago, in order that more attention could be given this school. Every energy will be brought to work on the local school, and it is possible that other departments will be added in the near future. The new catalogue has just been issued from The Democrat-Forum office, and the new term will begin September 5.

Showered the Wrong Col.

The spirit of mischief must have prevailed among the young men as well as the young ladies of Maryville this week. A crowd of fellows have thought it great sport to play pranks on the young men who have been sleeping in tents during the summer weeks. A few evenings ago a crowd of pleasure seekers bided the hour of retiring, and when the figured that the correct time was at hand cautiously approached the tent and prepared to give the young man a shower bath. Splash went the water and they scampered away, leaving the victim to his fate, but the intruders had invaded the wrong tent, and instead of the victim for whom they had made such preparations they had baptized the cot on which his mother slept. She failed to see the fun until next morning, when she was thoroughly dry and warm, when she laughed with the rest of them.

Bonnie Johnson Married.

Word has been received in Maryville of the marriage on Saturday evening July 22, of Miss Bonnie Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Johnson of Maryville, to J. Louis Crum of Danville, Ky. The wedding took place at 8 o'clock p. m., at Hot Springs, Ark. Mr. and Mrs. Crum have gone to housekeeping in Hot Springs, where they will live during the winter, their address being 208 Garden street. Mrs. Crum has been in Hot Springs since May 1st, where she went with her mother, who was a sufferer from rheumatism. Mrs. Johnson will remain there for a month or more, as the climate has been beneficial and she is seeking a permanent cure.

The bride was a teacher in this county for a few years, having taught in Elmo and Barnard, and is well known. Mr. Crum visited her here and is remembered by her friends in this city.

SCARED THE HORSE

CAUSE OF ACCIDENT.

GIRL HAD LEG BROKEN

As a Result Woods Was Arrested On
Warrant Sworn Out by George
Barber.

Richard, or "Dick," Woods, favorably known in the city, was arrested Thursday by Sheriff Tilson on a charge of injuring the life of Grace Barber by negligence in operating an automobile. The information was sworn out by George Barber, father of the 16-year-old girl, who sustained a broken leg and other injuries by the carelessness of Woods in driving the machine. The accident happened last Friday.

The accident happened last Friday. Woods, accompanied by Ben Wright and Henry Wilhoite, went to Parnell on that day in O. K. Barber's machine. Woods driving the car. On hearing Parnell, about two and a half miles from that town, Grace Barber was riding horseback, and on the approach of the machine, which, it is said was going at a good speed, the horse became frightened and commenced to run away, but the driver of the machine, instead of slowing down, increased the speed, causing the horse to throw the girl, she sustaining a number of injuries and a broken leg. It is said that the party went on into Parnell and did not stop to help the girl.

Ball was furnished by Woods for $800, with J. A. Ford and G. B. Baker as sureties. The case will probably come up at the special term of court to be held in September.

THEY SHOULD GO TO THE PROPER AUTHORITIES

It is said that there has been many complaints recently on the part of many people on the open violation of the speed laws of the city by automobile drivers. As one official said Thursday morning to a representative of this paper: "These people should tell the proper authorities in regard to the autoists violating the speed ordinance and going around the city without any lights on their machines. How are we going to find out if these people who see them violating the law don't tell us? If they go to the proper authorities, and if there is any violation of the city ordinances we will see that they are dealt with."

All are cordially invited to attend the mystery social at the First M. E. church Friday night.

Mrs. E. C. Wolfers, Sr., Mrs. Chas. Donlin, Mrs. Ed Herbert and Mrs. H. C. Clutter of Hopkins were Maryville visitors Wednesday afternoon.

Fred Wolfers of Pickering drove the Wolfers car to Maryville Wednesday, accompanied by Galen Goodson of Hopkins and John Douglas.

IS A SUCCESS AT LEAST IN HANNIBAL.

That municipal ownership is a success in some places, or at least at Hannibal, Mo., can be seen from reading the following editorial, which appeared in Wednesday's Kansas City Times:

At rates which appear to be at least as low as those charged by the Kansas City Electric Light company, the municipal electric light plant of the small city of Hannibal, Mo., paid for itself in eight years, and in addition netted the city $45,000 of profits to apply on other municipal indebtedness.

Now, let it be admitted that Hannibal's electric light plant is being conducted unjustly to the consumers of light and power. They are paying the bills of the taxpayers. It is ridiculous, of course, to pay off a general debt with money charged people for a special service.

But that mistaken policy does not affect the fact that public ownership of the lighting plant has paid splendidly. If the citizens have not used their advantage sensibly that is their fault. And they can cease robbing Peter to pay Paul when they want to. They wouldn't have that choice if private owners got the profits instead of the taxpayers.

Also the Hannibal experience demonstrates that a municipal plant can be handled as capably as a private institution. It is doubtful if any privately owned public utility has made Hannibal electric light plant as good a plant as made the light and power for the town. The inequity of taxpayers' bill instead of giving service at cost (including up the plant) manifestly has to do with the quality of the plant and operation of the service. City is now investigating the legal possibility of its municipal ownership of public utilities, second, the advisability of such plan and operation if the legal clear. In the course of that the experiences of other cities are carefully considered.

President Taft Affixes His Name
to Measure.

CABINET MEMBERS PRESENT.

Vice President Sherman and Speaker
Clark Signed It Shortly Before It
Was Sent to the White House—Pen-
rose Gets the Gold Pen.

Washington, July 27.—Speaker Clark
and Vice President Sherman signed the Canadian reciprocity bill. It was at once forwarded to the president.

The bill reached the White House
shortly after 1 p. m., but Mr. Taft did not sign it until 3:16 p. m. Secretary of State Knox and other officials were present.

Secretary of State Knox, Secretary
of Commerce and Labor Nagel, Secretary to the President Hilles and Representative Littleton of New York and several newspaper correspondents and
a battery of photographers witnessed
the signing. As he picked up the pen
the president turned to Secretary Knox.

"Come over here, Brother Knox," he
The secretary of state stood beside
the president as he placed his name
on the parchment.

"It is done," said Mr. Knox.
"It's done," echoed the president,
as the two clasped hands across the
desk.

To give the photographers a chance
the president went through the motion of signing the act a few seconds later.
"I didn't know there was so much interest in it as this," he said. "But—"
smile.

The gold pen used by the president in signing the treaty was sent to Chairman Penrose of the senate finance committee, who led the fight for the bill in the senate.

UNUSUAL AUTO ACCIDENT

Man Under Car Is Killed When An-
other Machine Strikes It.

New York, July 27.—Charles Hirsh,
a manufacturer of Brooklyn, was instantly killed and John Wotka, a chauffeur, was fatally injured in an unusual automobile accident on Pet-ham parkway. Hirsh had crawled beneath his car to make repairs when a second automobile crashed into it,
wrecking both machines and crushing Hirsh so badly that he died a few minutes later.

The chauffeur of the second automobile, John Wotka, had been blinded
by the glare of a third automobile and in swerving out struck the Hirsh machine. Wotka, as he lay in the ambulance, kept repeating, "My God!
That glare, that glare!"

The physicians say Wotka is not expected to live. Three other occupants of Wotka's car were slightly hurt, including John Giles of South Norwalk,
Conn., the owner of the car.

Lorimer's Attorney Tries to "Show It
Up" During Cross-Examination.

Washington, July 27.—Clash after
clash between witness and attorney
occurred again at the senate Lorimer
committee hearing during the cross-
examination of James Keeley, general
manager and editor of the Chicago Tribune by Senator Lorimer's counsel.
The proceedings largely centered
around the publication of the so called confession of State Representative
White of the Illinois legislature.

Just before the committee recessed
Mr. Haney asked if the Tribune engaged Alfred Austrian for its counsel
in the White-Lorimer matter because
of any close relation of Austrian's firm to the state's attorney's office in Chicago, from which many indictments
in the matter had emanated.

Mr. Keeley responded that Mr. Austrian was employed by the Tribune as its counsel long before the White confession or the Lorimer election ever came up.

Hundred Killed by Typhoon.

Tokyo, July 27.—More than a hundred persons are believed to have lost their lives in the typhoon which
swept over Tokyo and Yokohama during the night. Forty bodies were recovered in the Suzuki district, including twenty-three occupants of a resort
which was washed away before the tenants could escape. The property loss will be large. Many fishing vessels and small coastwise craft are missing.

Asks $500,000 to Defend McNamara.

Washington, July 27.—An appeal for a $500,000 fund to defend J. J. Mc-Namara, the labor man, accused of dynamiting, has been issued by Secretary Morrison of the American Federation of Labor, to the 2,000,000 members of labor unions. He suggests that each member contribute 25 cents.

Warren Relief Bill Passed by Senate.

Washington, July 27.—The senate passed the Warren bill, allowing homestead claimants in drought stricken districts of Wyoming, the Dakotas and Nebraska to leave their lands until April 15, 1912, without loss of any of their rights.

Miss Stella and Miss Ruby Townsend

latives in Maryville, and Miss Lura Stockton went to St. Joseph Thursday morning to visit over the week-end with Mrs. John Koch.

nephew, Charles Clist, of Emporia,

BANNER OF REVOLT RAISED

Tariff Reformers at Dinner Given to Earl of Halsburg.

Reference to Prime Minister Asquith Brings Out Shouts of Traitor by Those Seated About the Table—Earl
of Selborne Presides.

London, July 27.—The banner of revolt against political party leaders was raised at a dinner given for the Earl
of Halsburg, which the extremists
among the Unionists intended should be a demonstration of their strength.
Several hundred Unionist peers, Unionist members of the house of commons
and party workers cheered the policy
of resistance.

The Earl of Selborne, who is credited with being a candidate for leader
of the opposition in the house of lords, presided and conspicuous among the diners were the Duke of Bedford, the Duke of Northumberland, the Duke of Westminster, the Duke of Marlborough,
the Marquis of Salisbury, Viscount Milverton, Baron Amphil, Lord Hugh
Cecil, Austen Chamberlain, Frederick
E. Smith, M. P., for the Waltham division of Liverpool, and the Rt. Hon.
George Wyndham, who was chief secretary for Ireland, 1900-1905, with a seat in the cabinet in Mr. Balfour's ministry, 1902. The younger Unionists
and tariff reformers composed the bulk of the company.

Asquith denounced as a Traitor.
Lord Halsburg was given a great ovation. He said Lord Lansdowne
had declared that if the bill passed, no institution would be safe, neither the crown nor the constitution; Irish union, the church, nor political liberties.

Austen Chamberlain made a stirring speech. When he had finished there were cries of "The future prime minister."

A reference to Premier Asquith was greeted with shouts of "Traitor!"
Mr. Wyndham, the Duke of Northumberland, the Marquis of Salisbury,
Lord Milner, Sir Edward Carson, Mr.
Smith and Lord Hugh Cecil also spoke.

DIPLOMATS TALK IN LONDON

Situation in Morocco Is Rapidly Nearing Acute Stage.

London, July 27.—That Germany will get compensation in South Africa as a result of its descent on Agadir and
in return for the free hand which France is seeking in Morocco is conceded here, but it is also clear that Great Britain is not going to permit
the establishment of a German naval base on the west coast of Africa if it can prevent it.

The activity of the foreign office was again marked. The indications point to the near approach of a stage where
the crisis either will become acutely violent or begin to dissolve. The composition of the group of ministers actively handling the situation—Premier Asquith, Sir Edward Grey, secretary
of foreign affairs, and Chancellor Lloyd-George, the latter representing
the Radicals of the cabinet—shows that the British government is solid,
while the fact that Sir Francis Bertie,
the British ambassador to France, and
Paul Cambon, the French ambassador
at London, have been called into conference proves the continued solidarity of the Anglo-French entente.

King Alfonso, too, appeared on the scene, having arrived at Portsmouth on the Spanish royal yacht Graladi and immediately came to London, where he conferred with Sir Edward Grey.

A HARMLESS WAY TO DARKEN THE HAIR

A Little Sage and Sulphur
Makes Gray Hair Vanish—A
Remedy for All Hair Troubles

Who does not know the value of sage
and sulphur for keeping the hair dark, soft, glossy and in good condition? As a matter of fact, sulphur is a natural element of hair, and a deficiency of it in
the hair is held by many scalp specialists
to be connected with loss of color and vitality of the hair. Unquestionably,
there is no better remedy for hair and
scalp troubles, especially premature gray-
ness, than sage and sulphur, if properly
prepared. The Wyeth Chemical Company of New York put up an ideal remedy of this kind, called Wyeth's Sage
and Sulphur Hair Remedy, and authorize druggists to sell it under guarantee
that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.
